

SAPUTO CELEBRATES THE FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF ITS LEGACY PROGRAM

(Montréal, October 15, 2018) – Saputo Inc. (“Saputo” or the “Company”) (TSX: SAP) is proud to mark the fifth anniversary of its Legacy Program. This initiative aims to improve the quality of sports and health facilities in the communities where the Company operates. Since its launch, Saputo has contributed approximately $2.3 million toward 38 projects in Canada, the United States, Argentina and Australia.

The permanent facilities targeted by the Legacy Program’s investments facilitate physical and outdoor activities, including baseball, ice sports, soccer, tennis and cycling, and provide the opportunity for all to be active in a healthy, safe and accessible environment.

Saputo is proud to leave a lasting and meaningful legacy in the communities where its employees live, work and play. “We are constantly evaluating new projects to encourage communities to adopt healthy lifestyles thanks to the support of our Legacy Program,” said Sandy Vassiadis, Vice President, Communications and Corporate Responsibility at Saputo.

Already this year, Saputo has been a part of seven new projects in the United States and Canada, and one in Australia.

Community engagement is important to Saputo. In this regard, the Company strives to invest 1% of its pre-tax profits each year in community programs and organizations that promote a healthy lifestyle for people of all ages. To learn more, visit www.saputo.com/Our-Promise/Community.
